

Keystone Trails Association

Bylaws - Clean

Approved April 18, 2020

Article 1: Name

The name of this Association shall be Keystone Trails Association, Inc., hereinafter referred to as “the Association”.

Article 2: Objectives

Keystone Trails Association is a federation of membership organizations and individuals dedicated to providing, preserving, protecting and promoting recreational hiking opportunities in Pennsylvania, and to representing the interests and concerns of the Pennsylvania hiking community. The Association is a volunteer-directed, public service organization.

The objectives of this Association shall be to:

- Coordinate the efforts of walking and hiking groups in and around Pennsylvania;
- Develop, build, and maintain hiking trails, including trail support facilities;
- Protect hiking trail lands through support and advocacy, as well as by acquisition when desirable and feasible; and
- Educate the public in the responsible use of trails and the natural environment.

Article 3: Membership

There shall be three categories of membership: individual, organizational, and partner.

3.1 Individual Membership

Any person, regardless of race, sex, national origin, age, religion, sexual orientation or disability, shall be accepted as an individual member upon making a membership contribution to the Association.

Such members are entitled to attend and participate in general membership meetings, and to vote by ballot for Representatives-at Large of the Council. Only members in good standing whose membership contributions are current shall be allowed to vote.

3.1.1 Life Membership

Life membership shall be available to any person upon making a membership contribution at a level established by the directors. Life members shall have the same rights and privileges as individual members.

3.1.2 Honorary Membership

Persons may be recommended for honorary membership by any member in good standing, and upon approval by the Board of Directors, shall be so honored. Honorary members shall not be required to make a membership contribution and shall have the same rights and privileges as individual members.

Keystone Trails Association

Bylaws - Clean

Approved April 18, 2020

3.2 Organizational Membership

Organizational members shall be limited to not-for-profit organizations (1) that sponsor hikes and/or maintain hiking trails OR (2) own or manage land on which hiking trails open to the public are maintained. Each such organization shall make a membership contribution as set by the Board of Directors, and its representative shall be a voting member of the Council.

3.3 Partner Membership

Other organizations, both for-profit and not-for-profit, that support the objectives of the Association as enumerated in Article 2 of these Bylaws may become Partners upon making a membership contribution but shall have no voting rights. This category shall include youth organizations whose members are under the age of 21.

3.4 Approval for Organizational and Partner Memberships

Applications for organizational and partner memberships shall be reviewed and approved by the Board of Directors. The Board may approve the application by a majority of those present and voting at any Board of Directors meeting.

Article 4: Organization

There are three organizational levels:

- (A) the general membership,
- (B) the Council and
- (C) the Board of Directors.

4.1 General Membership

The general membership is the base of the Association upon which everything else depends. It includes all members in all categories.

4.2 Council

The Council shall consist of one representative from each organizational member, 12 representatives-at-large elected by the individual members, the members of the Board of Directors, and the chairs of the standing committees.

The Council shall be responsible for the ratification of the annual budget and the approval of amendments to these Bylaws. The Council shall be kept informed by the Board about major decisions pending or adopted and shall be expected to give advice and make recommendations to the Board.

The Council representatives of organizational members shall serve at the pleasure of the organizations they represent. Unless the Secretary or the Executive Director is otherwise notified, the president or chief elected official of each such organization shall be considered its representative to the Council.

The representatives-at-large shall be elected for a two-year term as prescribed in Article 5.1.3, and are not barred from seeking re-election to subsequent terms.

Keystone Trails Association

Bylaws - Clean

Approved April 18, 2020

4.3 Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall consist of at least nine and not more than fifteen members elected by the Council. Board members shall serve staggered three-year terms, with at least three and not more than five members elected each year. The Executive Director also serves on the Board, as described elsewhere in these By-Laws.

The Board shall manage the affairs of the Association and shall develop policies and approve actions that carry out the mission of the Association, taking into account advice given and recommendations made by the Council.

Whenever a seat on the Board becomes vacant prior to completion of a term, the Board President shall propose a replacement which shall be approved by the Board. A director appointed to fill a vacancy shall serve for the unexpired term of that director's predecessor in office.

The Board shall have the authority to initiate legal action in state or federal court.

4.4 Removal of Board Members

A Board member may be removed from office for cause by a two-thirds vote of the remaining directors, provided that notice of such proposed action shall be sent to all Council members at least 25 days in advance of the meeting at which such action is to be on the agenda. In addition, the Board member who is the subject of the proposed vote shall be provided, at least 25 days in advance, with a statement of the reason(s) for the proposed removal and shall be provided with an opportunity to respond before any removal vote is taken.

Article 5: Nominations and Elections

5.1 Nominating Process

Not later than April 1 of each year the Board shall elect a three-member Nominating Committee to serve staggered two-year terms. The names of the members of the Nominating Committee shall be published in the official publication of the Association in the first issue following the designation of the Nominating Committee. Nominations of members of the association willing to serve as members of the Board may be made by petition submitted by a minimum of ten members of the Association and accompanied by written consent of the nominee. Petitions shall be delivered to either the Nominating Committee or the Secretary not later than 30 days prior to the Annual Meeting.

Bylaws - Clean

Approved April 18, 2020

5.1.1 Nominating Committee

The Nominating Committee shall consist of one member from the Board, one member from the Council and one general member from the membership at large. The Board shall designate the Chair.

Each year the Nominating Committee shall present a list of qualified candidates for the seats to be filled on the Board of Directors. The list shall be published in the official publication of the Association prior to the Council's Annual Meeting and shall also appear in the notice of the Annual Meeting which shall be e-mailed or postal mailed not later than 25 days prior to the date of the Annual Meeting.

Nominations of persons willing to serve as members of the Board may be made by petition and accompanied by written consent of the nominee. Petitions shall be delivered to either the Nominating Committee or the Secretary not later than 30 days prior to the Annual Meeting.

The Nominating Committee shall also create a slate of Officers to be elected at the Council's Annual Meeting.

If there are more nominees for the Board than the number of seats to be filled, voting shall be by ballot and plurality votes. A quorum is all voting members.

5.1.2 Board of Directors

The Board of Directors shall consist of all elected or appointed Directors plus all elected or appointed Officers.

The election for seats on the Board of Directors shall take place at the Council's Annual Meeting each year. Except for a Director filling an unexpired term, the term of each Director shall begin on November 1 after his or her election and expire on October 31 of the year his or her term expires.

An individual may serve no more than nine consecutive years as a Director.

Directors shall serve without compensation for their service as Directors. Directors may receive compensation for service to the organization in other capacities and reimbursement for expenses incurred in furtherance of organization business; to the same extent such compensation or reimbursement is provided to non-Directors.

When any Officer or non-officer member of the Board fails to attend three (3) consecutive Board and/or General Meetings without having a valid acceptable reason for absence as determined by the remaining officers and non-officer directors, the office or directorship may be declared vacant by a majority of the Board. An office or Directorship shall be declared vacant immediately upon the death or resignation of any officer or non-officer director. Resignations of Officers or non-officer members of the Board shall be effective upon receipt by the Secretary of the organization of written notice.

5.1.3 Council Representatives-at-Large

In odd numbered years the Nominating Committee shall prepare a slate of at least twelve qualified candidates for representative-at-large to the Council. The slate shall be published in the official publication of the Association prior to the Annual Meeting of the General Membership and shall also appear in the notice of this meeting that shall be mailed not later than 25 days prior to the date of this meeting.

Nominations of persons willing to serve as Representatives-at-Large may be made by petition signed by at least ten individual members in good standing, provided that such petition shall be accompanied by the consent of the nominees to have their names placed on the ballot. Petitions shall be delivered to either the Nominating Committee or the Secretary not later than 25 days prior to the Annual Meeting

Only individual members of the Association shall be eligible to serve as Representatives-at-Large.

The election of Representatives-at-Large shall take place at the General Membership's Annual Meeting in odd numbered years, and those elected shall take office immediately upon election.

The names of those so elected shall be published in the official publication of the Association in the issue immediately following the meeting.

A vacancy for the unexpired term of a Representative-at-Large shall be filled by the Nominating Committee and voted upon at either a special or regular meeting of the Council or by mail or email.

Article 6: Officers

Following the election for the Board of Directors each year, the Council shall elect the Association's officers for the year from among the elected members of the Board.

Officers of the Association shall be a President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. These officers shall also function as the officers of the Board and the Council.

Officers shall be elected for a one-year term at the annual meeting and may stand for re-election. Except for an Officer filling an unexpired term, the term of each Officer shall begin on November 1 after his or her election and expire the following October 31.

Duties of the officers shall be those customarily assigned to the respective offices, or as the Council may otherwise direct.

If for any reason the office of President becomes vacant, the Vice- President shall succeed to the office of President. Should a vacancy occur in any of the other offices, the Board of Directors shall designate an interim replacement until the next regular meeting of the Council, when someone shall be elected to serve out the unexpired term. An officer may be removed by the Board using the same procedures in accord with a Board member.

Keystone Trails Association

Bylaws - Clean

Approved April 18, 2020

The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board as Chair. The President shall perform all duties attendant to that office, subject, however, to the control of the Board, and shall perform such other duties as on occasion shall be assigned by the Board.

The Vice-President shall preside at meetings of the Board as Chair in the absence of or request of the President. The Vice-President shall perform other duties as requested and assigned by the President, subject to the control of the Board.

The Secretary shall be responsible for assuring that records are maintained for Board and Council actions.

The Treasurer shall be responsible for chairing the Finance Committee, recommending financial strategy, assuring that financial records are accurate and assist in preparation of the budget, help develop fundraising plans and make financial information available to Board members and the public. The Treasurer shall make a financial report at each Board meeting,

Article 7: Executive Director

The President, with the approval of the Board, shall have the authority to employ an Executive Director, either full-time or part-time as the Board deems appropriate.

The Executive Director shall report to the President.

Should the Executive Director become temporarily unable to fulfill the duties of his office, the President, with the approval of the Board may appoint an Acting Executive Director for the duration of the disability.

The Executive Director shall be an ex-officio nonvoting member of the Board, the Council, and all committees except the Nominating Committee and those considering his or her performance and compensation.

The Executive Director shall implement the Board's policies and decisions as directed by the President and shall supervise and execute the day-to-day business and affairs of the Association.

The Executive Director, with the approval of the Board, shall have the authority to hire additional supporting staff as appropriate.

Article 8: Meetings

Keystone Trails Association

Bylaws - Clean

Approved April 18, 2020

8.1 Meetings of Membership

There shall be one general membership meeting each year: the Annual Meeting. At the Annual Meeting all members present shall be given an opportunity to ask questions, raise issues, express concerns, and offer suggestions. All comments made at the meeting shall subsequently be reviewed by the Board of Directors, and a general response shall be printed in the official publication of the Association.

Special Meetings of the membership may be called by a vote of a majority of the Board. Notice of the time, place and agenda of the special meeting shall be delivered to the members of the Association at least thirty days in advance of the special meeting. Such notification may be by means of the Association's official publication, or by postal mail or by electronic mail.

8.2 Council Meetings

The Council shall meet at least twice per year, with one of the meetings to be held in conjunction with the Annual Meeting.

The date, time, and place of regular Council meetings shall be published in the official publication of the Association and posted on the Association's web site not less than 45 days prior to said meeting, and sent by mail or e-mail at least 25 days in advance of the meeting to all voting members of Council. Special meetings of Council may be called by the President as necessary, notice to be mailed to Council members not less than ten days in advance. Special meetings of Council may be called upon written request to the President by any six Council members, with notice to be mailed to Council members not less than ten days in advance. Special meeting notices shall also include the purpose of the meeting.

A quorum to conduct business at a Council meeting shall be at least one-fourth of those entitled to vote.

The principle of "one person, one vote" shall be followed so that no person may vote more than once on any motion regardless of the number of positions held.

All Council meetings shall be open meetings.

8.3 Board of Directors Meetings

The Board of Directors shall meet at least four times per year, with one of the meetings to be held in conjunction with the Annual fall Meeting. A quorum to conduct business at a Board meeting shall be a simple majority of voting Board members, including at least two officers, attending in person or through teleconferencing. If less than a quorum of the Board is present at said meeting, a majority of the directors present may adjourn the meeting on occasion without further notice.

Any action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board (including amendment of these By-Laws) or of any committee may be taken without notice or a meeting if all the members of the Board or committee consent in writing to taking the action without a meeting and to approving specific action. Such consents shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote of the Board or of the committee as the case may be.

Keystone Trails Association

Bylaws - Clean

Approved April 18, 2020

Members of the Board may participate in a meeting through the use of conference telephone or similar communications equipment, so long as members participating in such meeting can hear one another.

The schedule for the next fiscal year shall be planned and announced prior to the beginning of the year. Meetings may be cancelled or postponed under special conditions by the Executive Committee or the full Board. Except when meeting in executive session, Board meetings shall be open to all members of the Association, who may participate on a non-voting basis. Special meetings may be called by the President or at the request of any two (2) directors by notice, e-mail or telephone to each member of the Board not less than forty-eight (48) hours before such meeting, unless such notices are waived by all directors.

Article 9: Committees

There shall be the following standing committees:

- (1) Finance Committee
- (2) Executive Committee
- (3) Nominations Committee
- (4) Trail Care Committee

The Chairpersons of the standing committees shall be appointed by the President with the concurrence of a majority of the Board of Directors. The Board may, by resolution adopted by a majority of the Directors in office, establish special committees of the Board composed of at least two (2) persons. All committees except for the Executive Committee may include non-Board members. The Board may make such provisions for appointment of the chair of such committees establish such procedures to govern their activities, and delegate thereto such authority as may be necessary or desirable for the efficient management of the property, affairs and activities of the organization.

The Chairpersons of standing committees shall be considered voting members of Council for the duration of their respective terms.

The Chairperson of each special committee shall be established by the Board annually. Each Chairperson shall submit an annual report of the committee's activities to the board.

The Board shall establish the mission for each special committee. These missions shall be reviewed periodically by the Board.

Committees may convene in person, by telephone, or by e-mail or by other forms of technical communication.

The Executive Committee, consisting of the Officers and two other Board members appointed by the President with the approval of the Board, shall have the full powers of the Board between Board meetings to deal only with issues requiring immediate action which, in the judgment of the Executive Committee, cannot wait until the next Board meeting.

Article 10: Financial Administration

Keystone Trails Association

Bylaws - Clean

Approved April 18, 2020
